COUNTY OF LANCASTER)

Cynthia J. Koenig-Warnke, being first duly sworn upon oath deposes and states that she is a Police Officer for the Lincoln Police Department, Lancaster County, Nebraska. AFFIANT further states she is currently involved in the investigation of financial exploitation of a vulnerable adult and financial exploitation of a senior adult, occurring in the city of Lincoln and Hickman, Lancaster County, Nebraska. As part of the investigation, AFFIANT states as follows:

On July 17, 2023, Patrice Noel, the daughter-in-law of Robert Mittelstaedt, age 91, year of birth 1932, reported to the Lincoln Police Department Officer Castaneda, that her father-in-law and her mother- in-law Venita F. Mittelstaedt, age 91, year of birth 1932, were victims of financial exploitation by a caregiver, Karley B. Clark, age 22, date of birth, February 28, 2001.

Patrice Noel reported to Lincoln Police Officer Castaneda that she estimated that Karley Clark had stolen approximately $50,000 from her in laws. Patrice Noel reported to the Lincoln Police Department Officer Castaneda that Karley Clark had used Robert Mittelstaedt’s American Express credit card and Venita Mittelstaedt’s Chase Visa credit card to make unauthorized purchases at Lululemon, Target, Target.com and at nail salons. Patrice Noel also showed Lincoln Police Officer Castaneda a text message from Karley Clark to Robert Mittelstaedt telling him not to confide in Patrice Noel or his daughter, Mary Mann, about the unauthorized charges as she told Robert Mittelstaedt if he told them they wouldn’t like her. After the initial report, AFFIANT was assigned follow up for the investigation.

On August 2, 2023, AFFIANT interviewed Robert Mittelstaedt regarding the financial exploitation investigation. Robert Mittelstaedt stated he received a call on his cell phone on or about the date of July 14, 2023, from an individual who stated they were from Adult Protective Services (APS). Robert Mittelstaedt told AFFIANT he was not familiar with APS and thought he was receiving a call from an individual who was perpetrating a scam or fraud. Robert Mittelstaedt told AFFIANT that an unknown individual had reported to APS that he was a victim of a financial exploitation and the APS caseworker was contacting him regarding the allegation. Robert Mittelstaedt told AFFIANT that he had called Chase credit card company regarding the balance being too large. Robert Mittelstaedt believed the balance was out of the normal and he said he pays the credit card balance each month for the Chase credit card. Robert Mittelstaedt told AFFIANT that Venita Mittelstaedt is the account holder for the Chase Visa credit card. Robert Mittelstaedt said it has been only by mistake in the past that he has not paid the credit card balances. Robert Mittelstaedt told AFFIANT he estimated his monthly expenses were approximately $300 to $500 per month.

Robert Mittelstaedt told AFFIANT that he and his wife Venita Mittelstaedt moved to The Landing, a transitional living community for older adults, approximately four years ago where they resided in an independent living apartment. Robert Mittelstaedt told AFFIANT that he and wife chose The Landing as they provided additional living options including long-term care and memory care, if needed.

Robert Mittelstaedt told AFFIANT on or about October 1, 2022, that he and Venita Mittelstaedt had COVID symptoms and were hospitalized at Bryan East for ten days. Robert Mittelstaedt stated after the hospitalization that he and Venita Mittelstaedt were admitted to Gateway Vista in Lincoln, NE for rehabilitation for four weeks. After being discharged from rehabilitation, Robert Mittelstaedt, hired an in home agency, The Key, for 24 hour care for he and Venita Mittelstaedt. Robert Mittelstaedt told AFFIANT he needed assistance with mobility and Venita Mittelstaedt needed assistance due to cognitive decline. Robert Mittelstaedt stated that they had 24-hour care, with three or four employees providing care for them. Robert Mittelstaedt told AFFIANT that The Landing employees approached him and suggested that Venita Mittelstaedt transition to memory care, to reduce the cost of in home 24-hour care for both of them. AFFIANT learned that Robert Mittelstaedt spoke with Patrice Noel and Mary Mann and it was determined due to Venita Mittelstaedt's cognitive decline she would move to memory care at The Landing. Robert Mittelstaedt informed AFFIANT Venita Mittelstaedt transitioned from independent living with 24-hour care to memory care on February 15, 2023.

AFFIANT learned from Robert Mittelstaedt that he continued with in home care, for himself, with one caretaker from The Key for eight hours Monday through Friday. He said that he would have in home care for four hours on Saturday and four hours on Sunday. Robert Mittelstaedt told AFFIANT the caretaker would assist him with meal preparation, answering telephone calls, arranging doctor's appointments, medication administration, shopping, transportation, and light housekeeping. Robert Mittelstaedt told AFFIANT that Karley Clark became his consistent caretaker, even though he preferred an employee named "Alondra" but she was unavailable as she was attending college. Robert Mittelstaedt stated he was familiar with Karley Clark as she had been a caretaker when he and Venita Mittelstaedt were receiving 24-hour care, prior to her transition to memory care.

AFFIANT learned from Robert Mittelstaedt that Karley Clark would run errands during her caretaking shift. He said that they would make a list of items needed and she would purchase the items. Robert Mittelstaedt told AFFIANT the errands included picking items up from the grocery store, picking up items for Venita Mittelstaedt, and picking up medications. Robert Mittelstaedt said Karley Clark would go to Trader Joe's, Hy-Vee, and Walgreens to purchase items. Robert Mittelstaedt said Karley Clark would also go to Target. He was not sure why she would go to Target, but possibly to purchase paper goods, such as toilet tissue, paper towel, and personal care items. Robert Mittelstaedt told AFFIANT the only items he had Karley Clark purchase for Venita Mittelstaedt were adult incontinence undergarments, toilet tissue, and Kleenex.

AFFIANT asked Robert Mittelstaedt during the interview how Karley Clark would purchase the items he needed. He said Karley Clark would complete the purchase with cash, check, or credit card. Robert Mittelstaedt told AFFIANT, at times, that he would write Karley Clark a check for cash to purchase the items, so she could cash the check at the bank where she had an account. Robert Mittelstaedt said that Karley Clark never provided receipts or an explanation for the expenses. Robert Mittelstaedt said the arrangement with Karley Clark was that she was to provide the change she received if she made cash payment, or if she cashed a check, she was supposed to provide the change to Robert Mittelstaedt from the amount of the check minus the expenses. Robert Mittelstaedt told AFFIANT he never received any change after Karley Clark completed the purchases and she said told him that she left the change from the purchases in the car. Robert Mittelstaedt told AFFIANT that Karley Clark would be provided checks or cash to pay for items for him and Venita Mittelstaedt at least once a week.

Robert Mittelstaedt informed AFFIANT that he estimated that he gave Karley Clark $200 to $300 a week to purchase items and he estimated he thought the cost of items was $100.

Robert Mittelstaedt told AFFIANT he called Chase Visa credit card company after he saw a $14,000 balance on the monthly credit card statement. Robert Mittelstaedt said there were at least 16 or 17 unauthorized charges to Lululemon. Robert Mittelstaedt told AFFIANT he did not know what Lululemon was and he had never heard of it. Robert Mittelstaedt said there were also unauthorized charges to Lululemon on his American Express credit card. Robert Mittelstaedt told AFFIANT that he had provided Karley Clark the credit cards for approved purchases for Venita Mittelstaedt and himself. Robert Mittelstaedt told AFFIANT Karley Clark was never authorized to purchase items for herself with any form of payment that belonged to Venita or Robert Mittelstaedt. Robert Mittelstaedt said the arrangement with Karley Clark was there would be a list of items created which needed to be purchased, she was given a form of payment, including the Chase Visa or American Express credit cards to purchase the authorized list of items and the credit card was supposed to be returned to Robert Mittelstaedt once the approved purchases were made. Robert Mittelstaedt told AFFIANT he learned that Karley Clark must have saved the credit card numbers in a digital wallet that she could pay for items automatically with the saved credit card information without having the physical credit card during the purchase, as purchases were made at various times, including dates and times she was not Robert Mittelstaedt's caretaker.

Robert Mittelstaedt told AFFIANT he informed Chase credit card company the purchases to Lululemon were fraud and unauthorized. Robert Mittelstaedt told AFFIANT he confronted Karley Clark about the Lululemon charges on the credit cards. AFFIANT was told that Karley Clark informed Robert Mittelstaedt that she was going to return the items to Lululemon. Robert Mittelstaedt told AFFIANT Karley Clark told him a story about her wallet being stolen but eventually she got her wallet back. Robert Mittelstaedt said he never understood what Karley Clark was telling him related to her stolen wallet.

Robert Mittelstaedt told the AFFIANT during the interview there were unauthorized charges for items purchased from Amazon, Grub hub, Uber Eats, Target, Target.com, various fast food restaurants, Verizon Wireless, Scooters Coffee, Starbucks, and Lost in Fun. AFFIANT asked Robert Mittelstaedt if he shopped in Hickman, NE and he said did not. Robert and Venita Mittelstaedt's credit card records showed purchases at Dollar General, U Stop, Hickman Bar and Grille, and New Day Coffee in Hickman, NE AFFIANT learned during the investigation through The Key pay records that Karley Clark resides at 102 Locust Street, Apt #2, in Hickman, NE. AFFIANT was told by Robert Mittelstaedt that additional unauthorized purchases were made at The Buckle, The Fort, American Eagle Outfitters, Von Maur, European Wax Center, and nail salons in Lincoln, NE. Robert Mittelstaedt also informed AFFIANT there were several Amazon purchases made with Venita and his credit cards, which he stated he has his family members order from Amazon for him as they ship faster and he does not order items from Amazon.

Robert Mittelstaedt told AFFIANT after calling the credit card company he told Karley Clark at least two different times that they needed to sit down and straighten this out to determine what charges are hers. Robert Mittelstaedt told AFFIANT he provided print outs of the credit card statements and he told her that they would go through the statements to mark what charges belonged to him and her. Robert Mittelstaedt said they were always going to talk about the unauthorized charges and planned to talk about on or about July 17, 2023. Robert Mittelstaedt told AFFIANT that Karley Clark was going to have a list of her charges she had made and he anticipated they would arrange for her paying back the total of the unauthorized charges.
